

How to get the best out of your practice and the incentives and benefits of being a GoldNet Research Network member

Tuesday, 24 March 2020

6:00pm – 9:00pm

IEBH, Building 5, Ground Floor, Gregor Heiner Foyer

18:00 – 18:45	Registration with light supper and refreshments
18:45 – 19:00	Welcome and Introduction	Prof Mark Morgan
19:00 - 19:20	Bridging the gap from the Swamp to the Ivory Tower – conducting research in General Practice	Prof Clare Heal James Cook University
19:20 – 19:30	Supporting GPs and General Practice with Patient-Centered Care through a co-designed toolkit. 3-minute thesis	Bryce Brickley PhD candidate supervised by Dr Lauren Ball, Griffith
19:30 – 19:50	A live demonstration of Primary Sense	Bev Korn/Mark Morgan Gold Coast PHN/Bond
19:50 – 20:50	Round table co-design of projects
20:50 – 21:00	Closing remarks

There is ample parking on the Bond University campus. A detailed map for parking area PG3 and direction to the entrance of the HSM building is on <https://www.goldnetresearch.com.au/24-march-2020>